

Senior Project: 2 Minute Introduction

An intro (example: good evening, thank you for being here, ask a rhetorical question, a quote, a joke, a story, etc.)

Your Name _____

Your Advisory Teacher's Name _____

General Idea of Senior Project was _____

Would you like questions now or later? How will you state this to the Judges?

Transition....now to tell you a little about myself....

Where are you from? Family? Siblings?

Things you did on campus the last four years? (AVID, clubs, 10,000 Degrees, Link Crew, sports, etc.)

Things you do outside of campus? (Volunteering, church, work, family obligations, have a mentor, etc)

General hobbies, passions, things you do for fun, odd facts about you, etc.

Transition....for my Senior Project I decided to....

What did you do for your hours for your Senior Project?

Who or what got me interested in this project is....?

Senior Project: 3 Minute Topic/Paper

Write your thesis here:

In your own words, explain the controversy behind your topic (why people should care, the counterclaim)

Then explain your side in your own words

What were your body paragraphs proving?

Give 3-5 facts that you learned from writing your paper.

Did you change your initial opinion? Why or why not?

Explain how your paper relates to your project

Senior Project: 7 Minute Activity

Give an overview of your activity. What did you do for your 20 hours?

What did you know about your topic before? Explain again why you picked this topic.

Explain how you found your mentor

Explain how your mentor helped you.

Explain your 20 hours. Who, what, when, where? Give step by step what you did.

What was your best memory?

What was your biggest challenge?

What is one thing you will always remember about your project?

Senior Project: 3 Minute Learning Stretch

Looking back at your paper, what did you learn after having done your 20 hours? Did your opinion change?

What did you know before you started? What do you know now?

What personal growth did you make by doing this project? What qualities did you learn (time management, organization, flexibility, etc.)?

How did this project change you? Will you continue this in the future? If you had done anything differently, what would it have been?

What is the most positive thing that you took out of this experience?

Senior Project: 5 Minute Conclusion

What are you doing next year?

What are your goals for the future?

Overall, how did this project have an impact on your life? (or how did you help others?)

Thank the judges for the time. How will you say this? Ask if they have any questions. How will you say this?

Finally, anticipate three questions they might ask you and write down how you would respond.
